BEL OMBRE: A PLAYGROUND OF EXPERIENCES

Embrace the Bel Ombre way of life. The 2,500 hectare Bel Ombre territory in Mauritius' south-west corner is one-of-a-kind; part of a UNESCO Man & Biosphere natural reserve, guests can't help but feel the ethereal magic of this experience.

On days spent away from the golf, guests can experience all of the wonders of the culture in this small cocoon of southern Mauritius.

The crystal clear Indian Ocean is the perfect spot for kayaking, kitesurf, scuba-diving, stand up paddling and water-skiing. Or, if you'd rather spend your days away from the golf course relaxing, then the 1,300 hectares of pristine nature, rivers, waterfalls, lagoons and hills of the Bel Ombre Nature Reserve, will gladly act as your sanctuary, with walks, cycles and drives to suit all abilities. If you'd like a little help to relax, then the estate's luxury spa is at your service. From coconut massages to flower-scented baths, you'll feel restored and rejuvenated for your next round of golf.

With an abundance of local flavours, Bel Ombre is a haven for culinary connoisseurs. Most of the ingredients served in the kitchens are hand-picked from the estate. A choice of 12 restaurants awaits, including gourmet cuisine at le Château de Bel Ombre, light meals at C Beach Club and hearty Italian delights at the Kuzini, to name just a few.
